

AGENDA

Beyond technology: the clean energy transition for climate-neutral, smart, and beautiful cities

Date 14 October 2021
Time 13:30 – 15:00 CEST
Format Online

PART 1: WELCOME

Speaker: Annemie Wyckmans – Head of NTNU Smart Sustainable Cities, Mission Innovation Champion, and Coordinator of the EERA Joint Programme on Smart Cities - NTNU and EERA

PART 2: MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVES THAT MAKE THE CLEAN ENERGY TRANSITION POSSIBLE

- “The Clean Energy Transition for climate-neutral, smart, and beautiful cities and communities: the European perspective”
Georg Houben, Policy Officer Smart Cities & Communities – DG ENER – Team, Consumers, Local Initiatives, Just Transition, European Commission
- “The Clean Energy Transition: a holistic approach for cities and communities”
Adel El Gammal, Secretary General – EERA

- “The Clean Energy Transition in cities and communities: development and market uptake of innovative products and services”

Lucienne Krosse, Thematic Lead for Smart Buildings and Cities – InnoEnergy

- “Bringing science closer to citizens - The perspective of medium and small-sized towns and cities”

Charlotte Spörndli, General Manager - Association European Energy Award

PART 3: PANEL DISCUSSION

RECONCILING PERSPECTIVES: IDEAS TO MOVE FORWARD

Moderator: Annemie Wyckmans, Head of NTNU Smart Sustainable Cities, Mission Innovation Champion, and Coordinator of the EERA Joint Programme on Smart Cities – Confirmed

Panelists:

- Georg Houben, Policy Officer Smart Cities & Communities – DG ENER
- Adel El Gammal, Secretary General – EERA
- Lucienne Krosse, Thematic Lead for Smart Buildings and Cities – InnoEnergy
- Charlotte Spörndli, General Manager - Association European Energy Award

PART 4: CONCLUSIONS AND MAIN TAKEAWAYS

Speaker: Annemie Wyckmans – Head of NTNU Smart Sustainable Cities, Mission Innovation Champion, and Coordinator of the EERA Joint Programme on Smart Cities - NTNU and EERA